NEW MUSIC.—"The Angels Told me So."

New Doet and Chorus; can be used as a song. Words by the Rev. Sidney Duer; music by Horace Waters. Price 25 cents, malled free; published by Horace Waters, No. 333 Broadway, New York. The above song is founded on the following atriking incident: A little child, some 6 years old, having a brother sick unto cent, dreamed that the angels told him that his brother would do and be inken away, but would return again. The poor livelid dying in a few days after, the little child, on learning it; suppared his body had taken flight with his spirit. On being taken to see the corpes, he exclaimed at he entered the room, "Oh, there's Alle; the little angels told me he would come back and see me." The touching thought is wrought into pleasant verses, and set to music, which will be straight to every mother's heart, who has a child among the angels.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—HOME INSURANCE COMPANY—Capital $50,000; Surplus, over $250,000.—Office Nos. 117 and 114 Broadway.—The officers of this Company Office Nos. It is an enumering to its patrons and the business com-munity generally, that the principle for which they have always ded has been conceded by their associate underwriters of this city, and that merchants and others requiring Insurance need be assessed no longer to support the unnecessary system of brokerage in Fire Insurance. The system they have always con-sidered as an evil, and have acted accordingly, maintaining that if the existing rates of premium would warrant the compa-allowing a return of a portion of the same as a commission broker, the INSURED were entitled to such reduction.

Special notice is, therefore, now given that this Company is prepared to return to the assured direct FIVE per cent of the amount of premium on all policies issued at the current rates on property in the cities of New-York, Brooklyn, Jersey City and Hoboken. CHAS. J. MARTIN, President.
